COMPLETE BUILDING PACKAGES

BUILDING. RELATIONSHIPS.

Whether you are looking for a new industrial warehouse or just a backyard man cave, let the years of expertise at Corrugated Industries provide you with an excellent product at a very competitive price. Hercules Metal Buildings is an in-house division of our company dedicated to providing complete metal buildings on your ready site.

Our metal buildings are completely customized precisely to your needs.

These are prefabricated buildings that you cannot get at a big box store. We are able to provide a great value for your project by stocking all components necessary for the job, from heavy gauge purlins to roof and wall panels in many styles and colors.

“Complete” is an important term we choose to use. We are prepared to support you with all you’ll need to construct your metal building. Many companies claim to be a “one stop shop,” but we are truly prepared to help you with every aspect of what it takes to withstand the elements. Call or email us today.
